Brisbane's genshen are an ARIA-nominated synth-pop ensemble who have achieved national recognition as a self-produced independent group. Under the award winning management of Quentin Brown they have gained extensive national radio and television exposure, toured extensively and played the biggest festivals in the Country. They are now looking forward to the release of their debut album in 2009.

"Genshen are by far the best band in Brisbane today... Genshen scream appeal..."

BIO OVERVIEW

"Genshen... are one of the most exciting live acts on the Brisbane scene"
Tsunami Mag

"I was deeply impressed ... Brisbane remains the Kapital of Kool."
Revolver Magazine

"Genshen... the noise is bigger than their status, and the venues will grow as they do!"
Drum Magazine

"Quite simply, Genshen are a revelation... Nothing local's sounded this good for years... Genshen sound poised for greatness."
Semper Magazine

"Tight & luscious...breathy, spacious, ethereal & utterly pop. Go buy it, go see 'em, & get yourself lurved!"
Time Off

"Genshen proceeded to startle and amaze with their ability to reproduce their lush atmospheric pop songs with such clarity...exquisite aural delights in the notoriously difficult live setting...superb"
Oz Music Project

"Genshen redefined 'pop'...I'd heard stories about the wonders of the Genshen band wagon, and boy it was a joyous ride...my new favourite band"
