

Day 13

Today is the last full day for Hames and P73 and accordingly they are first out into the dawn's perfect four foot; clean and hollow. TC joins them and hour later. The wind blows straight offshore east for the first time and the surf quality is excellent.

They come in and wash down some
BREAKFAST: cheese and peanut donuts (first average meal) with the kopi susu.

Then it is back for a second session and all enjoy good waves.

P73 gets one that was so long "I did everything I could think of"

After LUNCH: Rendung, fried peanut mix, rice (+ water!), P73 gets in touch with the reef and is forced to ease off before dusk. He spends the afternoon in the Club enjoying a perfect view and chilled ales.

P73 "Great holiday. Great waves, good food, best birthday ever! I'm feeling tired and sore. Fitness is definitely a key. A few cuts and abrasions which will hopefully scar so I can be reminded of what great time its been in Sumatra. I didn't realize one could have so much fun and gain so much experience. I feel I have grown in body and soul".

Hames surfs until after sunset, spending well over eight hours in the water for the day.
